Britain's newest English composer society

The Holst Society, a charity, was launched at the English Music Festival in May 2017. Its objectives are twofold:-

- Promote/sponsor live performance of Holst's music by amateur music groups (choral societies/orchestras).
- Promote recording of Holst's music, not hitherto recorded.

The annual subscription is £25 (£40 for couples). For members of the Holst Birthplace Trust, we offer a 40% discount - £15/£24 (couples). To apply for membership, please complete form on reverse.

For further information phone Chris Cope (chairman) on 01769 581581 or email chairman@holstsociety.org.
